Billy Zeng

Dorchester Program Coordinator
Asian American Resource Workshop

Billy Zeng (he/him) is a queer youth worker based in the Greater Boston area. He has grown up in Malden and gotten his start in youth programming and leadership during his time at the Greater Malden Asian American Community Coalition (GMAACC) as the inaugural Youth on Board. Currently, he works as the Dorchester Program Coordinator at the Asian American Resource Workshop, where he directs the Dorchester Organizing and Training Initiative (DOT-I). Outside of youth work, Billy is a cultural worker, artist, and organizer where he uses public history and printmaking to archive our local social movements.
