Ashley Jin

Youth Programs Associate - Chinatown
Asian Community Development Corporation

Ashley Jin is a Boston-based artist and youth worker. At Asian Community Development Corporation (ACDC), she facilitates school-year (A-VOYCE) and summer (Summer Leadership Academy / Films at the Gate) programs in Chinatown for high-school-aged youth to explore personal identity, learn about spatial justice and placekeeping, and develop storytelling and leadership skills that can be used to advocate for marginalized communities. She graduated from Tufts University and the School of the Museum of Fine Arts with a BA in Clinical Psychology and BFA in Studio Art.
